

I and my family tune in to K-love for several hours each day through a FM translator at 100.9. This station provides popular Christian music, news and comment. KLOVE is the only station that I have found that will not blast me with bad language, or hateful speech about something, which is why I support the station with a $40.00 monthly contribution. Please do not displace this valuable community service with a LPFM broadcaster.